French Bombard Roads Leading From Lost Fort

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—French fighters and bombers today heavily attacked key roads leading northward from the fallen fortress of Dien Bien Phu. The roads are jammed with thousands of Communist-led Vietminh troops and big Molotov truck convoys.

Dropping 1,000-pound high explosive bombs and heavily strafing, the warplanes centered their attacks upon the road from Tuan Giao, 27 miles northeast of Dien Bien Phu, and running eastward to Na San, which is 117 miles west of Hanoi.

Cut In 10 Places

It was at Na San in the winter of 1952 and 1953 that the French, as at Dien Bien Phu, had for months put up a valiant resistance against encircling and vastly superior Vietminh forces.

The French evacuated Na San on Aug. 11, 1953 and the Vietminh's quickly moved in to use it as a base.

The French high command reported today that warplanes had cut the road between Tuan Giao and Na San in 10 places.

Rockets Hit Trucks

Vietminh troops and convoys were reported moving two ways today: into and out of the Thai country of northwestern Indochina. Those going in may be for reinforcing Vietminh positions in Thai capital of Lai Chau, 200 miles northwest of Hanoi, which the Vietminh occupied after the French pulled out on Dec. 11, 1953. They also may be intended to take over occupation of Dien Bien Phu sector from the battleworn rebels.

Dien Bien Phu, on a road leading southward to the royal Laotian capital of Luang Prabang, might be used as a takeoff base by the Vietminh for a fresh invasion of the little mountain kingdom.

Hundreds of Molotov trucks moving along the roads in the Thai country were heavily hit Sunday night with rockets by French fighters.

Smashup Kills 3 Near Ann Arbor

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three men fatally injured in an auto-truck smashup near Ann Arbor raised to 12 today Michigan's weekend traffic death toll.

A boy was killed when caught in the blades of a power lawn mower in Belleville, outside Detroit.

Victims of the auto-truck collision four miles north of Ann Arbor on US23 were: William Paul Dow, 42, and Joseph John Lynch, 61, both of Ann Arbor, and Everett Wade Coleman, 31, of Sidman, Pa.

Washtenaw County sheriff's men said the three died when Dow smashed into the rear of an automobile - haulaway truck whose driver had stopped to give aid to another motorist.

The truck, Russell M. Jensen of Lapeer, said a car driven by Andrew Yurko, 29, of Ann Arbor, went out of control, struck a tree and overturned after passing him and that he stopped to give aid.

Before he could alight, Jensen said he saw a car approaching from the rear and blinked his lights to signal he was stopped, but apparently Dow didn't see them.

Yurko suffered only minor injuries, Jensen suffered shock.

Mrs. Lelia Snell, 32, of Crystal Falls was fatally injured Saturday night when she lost control of her car on an Iron County road, 10 miles west of Crystal Falls. Mrs. Snell was expecting her fourth child which a posthumous operation failed to save.

Stolen Money Pays For Pleasure Spree Of Canadian Couple

DETROIT (AP)—A Canadian couple, charged with unarmed robbery in Detroit, told police they stole $1,500 in Canada to finance a three-week pleasure spree.

Detective Harold Ewing said Raymond Latour, 29, and his wife, Catherine, 21, told him they robbed a Winnipeg, Man., credit office of $1,500 on April 16.

Latour said they spent the money in Chicago and Minneapolis and it finally ran out in Detroit.

Latour said they lured Miss Ann Kleiner to their hotel room by telling her Mrs. Latour was sick. Then they bound her and took $30 cash and a $500 wristwatch from Miss Kleiner's hotel room.

Latour said they robbed Miss Kleiner because they were "hungry and in a hurry."

Congress May OK Sharing Of Atomic Secrets

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY) predicted today that Congress will approve President Eisenhower's proposals to exchange more atomic information with allies and to give private industry a go-ahead in developing peacetime power.

Cole, chairman of the Senate House Atomic Energy Committee, said in an interview he has heard of no strong opposition to a comprehensive bill now before Congress carrying out the President's program. Cole added a belief there is time for action during this session.

The report Baughman got was that there would be an attempt on Eisenhower's life Sunday afternoon at Fredericksburg, Va., where the chief executive drove to place a wreath at the grave of Mary Ball Washington, mother of the nation's first President. Fredericksburg is about 45 miles south of Washington.

The measure would also provide: 1. Authority for the Atomic Energy Commission to exchange information with U.S. allies abroad on the uses and performance of nuclear weapons, and on peacetime power.

2. New restrictions designed to impose what Cole termed "absolute liability" on officials divulging restricted information and on anyone, including newsmen, who knowingly transmits it to unauthorized persons.

Lowered Voting Age May Get Senate OK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) says he is "optimistic" that the Senate will approve a proposed constitutional amendment to lower the voting age from 21 to 18 when the measure comes up this week.

The legislation has long had an okay from the Senate Judiciary Committee, but there has been no action in the House. Humphrey said Sunday Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP Senate leader, agreed to bring the measure to the floor this week.

Air Force Academy Permanent Site To Be Chosen May 15

By RAY HENRY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force Academy, baby brother to West Point and Annapolis, is crawling out of its swaddling clothes.

In interviews today, Air Force officials told of its progress since April 1 when President Eisenhower signed the academy's "birth certificate"—legislation authorizing its construction.

The academy's permanent site may be chosen by May 15. A hunt for one has been on since April 9 when a five-man commission appointed by Secretary of the Air Force Harold E. Talbot took off from here by plane.

Huge Tract Wanted

The group announced Sunday it was leaving today to look at two more proposed sites—in Lee County, Iowa, and near Tonganoxie, Kan.

In the past month, the group has been hedge-hopping over millions of acres of land in search of a three-week pleasure spree.

LaTour said they spent the money in Chicago and Minneapolis and it finally ran out in Detroit.

LaTour said they lured Miss Ann Kleiner to their hotel room by telling her Mrs. LaTour was sick. Then they bound her and took $30 cash and a $500 wristwatch from Miss Kleiner's hotel room.

LaTour said they robbed Miss Kleiner because they were "hungry and in a hurry."

Some time this July the Air Force will announce detailed testing procedures, regulations and other information about getting into the academy.

Secret Service Kept Busy Tracing Threat To Kill Eisenhower

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower didn't know it, but Secret Service agents spent a busy weekend investigating a reported threat to assassinate him.

Secret Service chief U. E. Baughman says of the report now that he is "satisfied there was nothing to it." But he reached that conclusion only after his men had worked long hours checking every angle, he said.

The report Baughman got was that there would be an attempt on Eisenhower's life Sunday afternoon at Fredericksburg, Va., where the chief executive drove to place a wreath at the grave of Mary Ball Washington, mother of the nation's first President. Fredericksburg is about 45 miles south of Washington.

2. New restrictions designed to impose what Cole termed "absolute liability" on officials divulging restricted information and on anyone, including newsmen, who knowingly transmits it to unauthorized persons.

Creation of the new unit came a month after the Army, Navy and Air Force set up a joint program aimed at keeping the services free of security risks. Both actions followed criticism by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) of the way the government has handled alleged subversives.

Executive Board Issues Statement In Labor Dispute

The executive board of Local 632, Harnischfeger UAW-CIO local union, this morning issued the following statement concerning their position in the current labor dispute at the Harnischfeger plants in Escanaba.

"There seems to be some misunderstanding in the public's mind concerning seniority clauses in union contracts and the various types that can be written. In the 1951 contract between the Harnischfeger Corp., and Local 632, UAW-CIO, a clause existed where the company could lay an employee off for a two (2) week period without regard to his seniority. This clause was eliminated from the next two contracts through bargaining, as an undesirable feature by the union.

"The last two contracts contained a seniority clause based upon a skill and ability paragraph, of which the company was the sole judge. This seemed satisfactory to the company and the union. An employee must have the skill and ability to perform the job of a younger employee, in order to replace that employee. This applied only in the case of a permanent reduction in the working force.

"In bargaining this year the company offered a departmental seniority, which the union has rejected every year as unsatisfactory, and which led to the overwhelming strike vote. Bargaining continued as a result of this vote and a settlement was verbally reached on all issues. The company was to print the contracts as agreed upon in bargaining sessions. When the contract was returned for union signatures a clause on seniority had been inserted stating that any man could be laid off for a period of 10 days in any three month period regardless of his seniority.

"This was flatly rejected by Local 632 membership and the bargaining committee informed the company of the membership's position. The company then proposed that due to a shortage of work a man could be laid off for a period of 5 days with no specified time limit, without considering his seniority status, which also was flatly rejected by the membership. The union wanted to retain the seniority clause contained in the last two (2) contracts. In these the company has considerable leeway, through the skill and ability clause.

The bargaining committee again informed the company that it was the desire of the membership to retain the seniority clause of the past two contracts.

"This was rejected by the company. The strike vote was a directive from the membership of Local 632 to their executive board, giving them authority to call a strike any time that negotiations were deadlocked, or broke down. This order was put into effect at 2:30 on the afternoon of Friday, April 30th 1954, after the bargaining committee

Harnischfeger Strike:

Talks Started Today In Efforts To End Walkout

Preliminary talks with union and management were scheduled today by Mayor Harlan Yelland in an effort to bring about a resumption of negotiations and settlement of the 10-day-old strike at Harnischfeger Corporation's truck crane and welding plants in Escanaba.

Reportedly the only point in dispute is a section of the new contract covering seniority and temporary lay-offs.

The Council is concerned that a protracted strike will seriously harm local economy in closing one of the city's largest employers. Mayor Yelland said a meeting of the Council will be called if it is required.

Circuit Court Session Opens

Delta County Circuit Court opened its May term this morning with Judge Glenn Jackson presiding and an unusually heavy calendar docketed.

Indications, based on the number of cases ready for trial, point to a longer than average term. Four jury cases have been assigned for trial by the judge and an equal number of non-jury civil cases are practically certain to be heard. One other jury case has been continued temporarily but the litigants must show cause why it must be continued before the judge will consent to such action.

Three criminal cases were up for hearing as court opened, but in only one case was a plea heard. Blaine Reiter, of Forest County, Wis., pleaded guilty to forging two checks—one in a tavern at Masonville and the other at Gladstone. Judge Jackson accepted his plea and will pass sentence later.

The case of State vs. Joseph Vachon, charged with illegitimacy, was continued temporarily on plea of the defense attorney, pending further investigation into the case.

The case of State vs. Gordon Evanson was also delayed on plea of the defendant's attorney. This was an appeal from Justice court.

The bulk of today's session was taken up with calling the calendar to ascertain what cases are ready for trial and the order in which they should be placed. This was a more than ordinarily lengthy process because in addition to the usual number of cases listed to be heard, were 94 cases entered on the docket years ago but not brought to trial. Practically all of these have been stricken from the calendar.

Listed as ready for trial are cases: Mary J. Dwyer vs. City of Escanaba, Wilhelmina C. Eaton vs. City of Escanaba, Alfred Gardner vs. John DeChant, Rex Stowe vs. Walter Kreecheky, Burger-Ellen, Inc., vs. A. B. Ellington, Kenneth Lawson vs. Milton Norden, Edward Jasonowicz vs. Blanch O'Connor (the result of two other cases hinge on this one), and Lake Shore Engineering Company vs. Alfred Brandt.

There are also an unusually large number of divorce actions docketed.

Tomorrow morning's session will be taken up entirely with naturalization hearings with country residents applying for citizenship were told they need not report until 9 a. m. May 25.

Escaped Wild Bronco Brought Back By Sea

CAROLINA BEACH, N. C. (AP)—The sea has returned an escaped rodeo bronco to the men who pursued it for four days.

The body of the big red roan was found here Saturday washed up on the beach in an end to the long chase.

The horse leaped into the sea Tuesday and swam until it disappeared beyond the horizon.

Its owner said he had intended to turn the animal out to pasture if it ever returned.

The Outer Banks area where it escaped is famous for its wild horses—but no one knows what the horse was seeking in the sea.

The bridle was still on the animal's head.

Requirements set up by the Diocesan Director of Boy Scouts.

Decision To Proceed With Fluoridation Is Logical One

THE decision of the Escanaba City Council to proceed with fluoridation of the city's water supply is a logical development in view of the decisive vote of approval by the city electors in a recent advisory vote.

Mayor Harlan Yelland's note of caution when the issue came before the Council Thursday night is understandable and commendable. The mayor pointed out that the anti-fluoridation arguments had been presented to him only a brief time before the meeting and he felt that the arguments deserved careful study.

What the mayor did not know—and it is completely understandable in view of the fact that he was elected to the Council only recently—is that the anti-fluoridation arguments had been carefully studied in the past.

It has been shown conclusively, we think, that adding one part of fluorides to one million parts of water is not in the least harmful to anyone, that it does not cause cancer, heart disease or brittle bones, and that it does prove beneficial in reducing dental caries.

Fluorine is found naturally in some water supplies, including most of the ground well water in this area. The bay water, however, does not contain fluorine and it is proposed to add a minute quantity to the water for the protection of children's teeth.

Fluoridation is being conducted in many cities of the United States, including a number in the Upper Peninsula. One of the larger cities where fluoridation is conducted is Milwaukee, the beer capital of the United States. The breweries there opposed fluoridation for a time because they were fearful that it might put Milwaukee beer at a competitive disadvantage with beer brewed elsewhere.

The breweries made their own studies of fluoridation, however, and were convinced that a minute quantity of fluorine, one part per million parts of water, did nothing harmful to the water supply.

It is argued by those opposed to fluoridation that fluorine as such is toxic and therefore should never be added to water supply. Well, for that matter, iodine also is toxic but it is added to table salt in Michigan to reduce thyroid activity. In the small quantity used, iodine is beneficial. The same is true of fluorine.

We are glad to note that the City Council is ready to proceed with the fluoridation of water here and we think the people of Escanaba are happy about that, too.

Just In Case

EVER since the outbreak of World War II, the stockpiling of essential materials has been a commonplace of sound defense policy. Now we seem to be going a step further—the stockpiling of factories.

Recently, the Ford Motor Company unveiled a complete 'packaged' tank factory worth $40 million. In a one-story building, properly dehumidified and put under guard, are stored 5500 items of machinery, tools, gauges and blueprints. All are so carefully catalogued that changes in tank design could be incorporated quickly into the lay-away plan.

This is not the first time war plant machinery has been stored, of course. But it is the first time a complete, self-contained factory has been so set aside, ready for speedy assembly in event of need.

The plan is a good one, imaginative and resourceful. It is good news that it will be applied to other plans in the future.

Questions and Answers

Q—Is there a fixed limit to the length of a session of Congress?

A—The Constitution, as amended, provides that each regular session of the Congress shall begin on Jan. 3, unless "the Congress" shall by law appoint a different day.

The Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 requires Congress to adjourn not later than the last day in July, except in time of war or national emergency. In practice, a Congress hardly can bind succeeding Congresses in such a manner—in 1953, for example, Congress adjourned early August 4. In 1954, it convened Jan. 6, having set back the date by special resolution.

Mental Health Field One Of Great Problem Areas

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

There isn't the slightest doubt that one of the great problems of our age lies in the field of mental health.

During World War II, draft statistics showed that far too many of our citizens were suffering from mental ailments, or were mentally deficient to a degree which prevented them from serving their country.

No information accumulated in the succeeding years leads us to any happier conclusion.

SINCE the National Association for Mental Health is conducting its fund-raising campaign this month, it seems appropriate to devote some columns to various aspects of the subject.

Today's column deals with a specific mental disease, the name of which is "schizophrenia," or "dementia praecox."

This disorder is responsible for a great deal of antisocial behavior; in many cases the victims require institutional care.

A "splitting" the personality is the most characteristic feature. The afflicted individual may show thoroughly normal behavior in some respects, and yet be completely abnormal in others.

THE CAUSE of schizophrenia is not known. Heredity probably plays some part and it has been stated that more than half of those with schizophrenia have some family history of mental illness.

And there probably are additional factors responsible for the development of this condition.

Schizophrenia is one of our major causes of mental illness. We need to know much more about its origins, prevention and treatment.

of the victim. Sometimes a patient will show an unusual amount of suspiciousness.

Dear friends or relatives may be unjustly suspected of persecutions.

Quite often the first signs consist of disorderliness and lack of cleanliness. Judgment is often impaired. The patient frequently complains of hearing or seeing strange objects which are not there.

Peculiar qualities of the thinking arise. The personality is likely to become gradually altered.

Sometimes mental strain or a disease seems to rapidly bring on the illness, though at other times it comes slowly, without any obvious background cause.

Slight peculiarities and oddities often are present for some time before serious symptoms develop.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Harry Truman, one-time ranking member of the Pearson non-admiration society, may be a bit surprised to read this story about him on the week of his seventieth birthday. But I hope he won't deny it as he has some stories in the past.

K. T. Keller, chairman of the Chrysler Corporation, told a group at the famed Bohemian Grove in California that he had telephoned the ex-President and told him he wanted him to have a Chrysler car.

"Lincolns seemed to have had the inside track at the White House while you were there," he told Truman, "and now General Motors is in favor. But we want you to use Chrysler."

Mr. Truman replied that he had been thinking about a Chrysler himself.

"What kind of a model do you suggest?" he asked.

"Our best model is the Imperial," Keller replied.

"That sounds a little too swanky for me. What else do you recommend?"

"Our New Yorker is next," said Keller. "However, Mr. President, I hope you realize that we want you to have this car with our compliments."

Mr. Truman demurred. "I'm a private citizen now," he said. "I don't think I should get any privileges that wouldn't come to any other private citizen."

"But we'll get lots of publicity from this car, and we want to give it to you," Keller remonstrated.

"I don't care if you get a million dollars' worth of publicity. The office of the President should not be exploited even when I leave it. I'm going to have a Chrysler all right. But I'm going to pay for it."

And he did. This is the car Harry Truman has been driving.

"Is there anyone here," concluded Keller, as he told the story to the Bohemian Club group, "who would have turned down a similar offer?"

MCCARTHY'S DAMPENED DYNAMITE

McCarthy and aides have been chortling with glee over a piece of dynamite they are holding in reserve to spring on Army counselor John G. Adams when he gets on the witness stand.

At first blush it might look as if McCarthy had something. On second blush it looks slightly damp. Anyway, here are the facts and the public can judge for itself.

The alleged Army scandal pertains to blood plasma and the purchase of substitute blood plasma from the Swedes.

Since blood plasma is all-important in case of atomic attack, and since real blood plasma is limited, the Army plans to stockpile a huge quantity of a new substitute, dextran blood plasma expander—in fact, two pints for every man, woman and child in the U. S. A. It will be stored ready for war.

However, a Swedish firm, the Pharmacia Company, has filed patent claims on dextran and demands a royalty from the United States. With a goal of two pints for every person, this obviously would run into a lot of money, and it was at this point that Army counselor John G. Adams stepped into the picture. It's also why McCarthy has been rubbing his hands with glee.

ADAMS' COMPROMISE

For the Justice Department has declared Pharmacia's patents invalid, and though Pharmacia immediately appealed to the courts, Adams, an Army counselor, had to decide whether to accept the Justice Department's word and get involved in a long legal battle, or make a compromise with Pharmacia.

20 YEARS AGO

Escanaba—Robert Prial, Escanaba real estate agent, is the new secretary of the U. S. State Fair Board.

Gladstone—Billy Girard, of this city, champion straight and fancy birler, is giving exhibitions of his skill at the Outdoor Exhibition Exposition on Navy Pier, Chicago.

DEAL WITH SWEDES

Bowers finally recommended a compromise by which the Army would pay Pharmacia 10 cents a pound royalty for dextran up to 100,000 pounds a year, with five cents a pound royalty over 100,000.

"A payment, not royalty, of a minimum of $100,000 for each year," was the exact language of Bowers' recommendation. "If the purchases run up to 200,000 pounds, there will be a royalty of five cents per pound on all blood plasma expander purchased or produced by the government."

This would add up to an estimated $17,000,000 over the life of the patent, and the Justice Department raised a howl. They had already ruled that the patent was invalid and there was no obligation to the Swedish company.

However, counselor Adams backed the compromise. And in an unpublished letter to Secretary of the Army Stevens, April 5, having set back the date by special resolution, he wrote:

"It is recommended that a settlement be sought with Pharmacia, if you concur. I shall prepare the appropriate letter to the Department of Justice outlining the views stated and recommended . . . Revoke the adjustment act order and negotiate on the basis that the patent is at least of questionable validity. The negotiations would take into consideration that the claimants, Pharmacia, have contributed very valuable information to the field of blood plasma expander."

WRONG LAWYER

It was when this leaked out that Joe McCarthy began chortling. McCarthy aides discovered that Pharmacia's lawyers in New York are Fish, Richardson and Neave, of which Frank A. Bowers is reportedly a member.

In other words, counselor Adams, the man McCarthy hates, apparently had played right into McCarthy's hands by appointing as so-called neutral counsel a man who worked for the Swedish firm's law firm.

This column, however, checking on McCarthy's secret impending expose, found that the lawyer working for the Swedish attorneys is "Frank A. Barrows," an entirely different person from Frank A. Bowers, appointed by the Army.

THE CAUSE of schizophrenia is not known. Heredity probably plays some part and it has been stated that more than half of those with schizophrenia have some family history of mental illness.

And there probably are additional factors responsible for the development of this condition.

Science Scans Mars' Mysteries As Planet Comes Closer To Us

By ROSE KRULL

NEA Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The red planet has an important rendezvous with earth this year during which man will try to solve some of its age-old secrets.

Is there life on Mars? Are there intelligent beings?

What is the meaning of the mysterious "blue envelope" which clouds the planet's surface?

What do the dark greenish markings portend during the Martian summer? Are they vegetation?

Are there really "canals" on Mars as claimed by the Italian astronomer Schiaparelli in 1877? The passing years have not settled this controversy.

These are some of the mysteries scientists hope to penetrate this year—and in 1956—when the planet will approach closer than it has in 15 years.

Mars swings next beyond the earth in distance from the sun. When the two planets reach positions nearest each other in their orbits, at intervals of slightly more than two years, their average distance apart is 48,000,000 miles. At times, Mars is more than 300,000,000 miles from the earth.

Mars' orbit is off center, however, bringing it closer to the earth in regular cycles. In 1954 it will pass a distance of about 40,000,000 miles, and in 1956 a little more than 35,000,000 miles, closer than it has been at any time since 1939.

Last summer the International Mars Committee was formed to plan and coordinate astronomical work on the red planet. In the coming year, observations will be made on all major continents, from high flying planes and perhaps even from stratosphere-piercing unmanned missiles.

The chief attack upon the planet's secrets will be made by a team of astronomers sponsored by the Lowell Observatory, of Flagstaff, Ariz., and the National Geographic Society. The expedition will be led by Dr. E. C. Slipher, of Flagstaff, who has given a lifetime study to Mars.

It will spend nine months at the Lamont-Hussey Observatory at Bloemfontein, South Africa, where a 27-inch refracting telescope will be trained nightly at the planet.

The telescope is ideally placed for the work, being located at a latitude where Mars will pass almost directly overhead each night. The skies there are usually clear in late spring and summer.

The committee hopes that by organizing round-the-world study of Mars, in which numerous amateur astronomers will participate, science will gain its most searching knowledge of the strange planet.

One goal is more exact measurement of the planet's diameter, about half that of the earth, and from it a better understanding of Mars' internal makeup.

Another is the photographic investigation of the so-called "blue envelope" which clouds the planet's surface at all except brief intervals.

Is there life on Mars? It has an atmosphere, with varying weather and climate. It has polar caps, which change in size with the Martian seasons. It has huge dark areas which extend toward Married and the father of two children, a boy and a girl, Dr. and Mrs. Johnson reside at 1301 8th Ave. S. His wife is a former school teacher.

Sunday School Girls Send Suggestions To Ann Arbor's Mayor

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Six civic-minded Sunday School girls thanked Mayor William E. Brown Jr. for smoothing out a bump near the railroad tracks — but they had a few suggestions.

"In a letter they asked:

"Trash pickup at least once a month."

"All dogs should be kept at home or in a fenced-in area—if possible. This law should be enforced."

"Better housing for those who are poor or of a different color; more neighborhood playgrounds limited to younger children—so we won't spoil neighbors yards and break windows."

"Streets kept smoother to prevent some of the accidents. A public outdoor swimming pool and more schools, so we won't be so crowded."

The mayor said he would read the letter to the City Council.

Norwegians Convicted Of Spying For Reds Sentenced To Prison

KIRKENES, Norway (AP) — A Norwegian court has found five Norwegians guilty of spying for the Soviet Union. It sentenced four of them to jail terms ranging up to four years and ordered them to pay the government the 28,100 kroner (about $4,000) the Russians had paid them.

The fifth defendant could not be sentenced because of the statute of limitations.

All were convicted of spying on civilian and military installations, including air bases and defenses along the border between the Soviet Union and Norway's northern province of Finnmark.

The prosecution's star witness was Soviet Intelligence Lt. G. F. Pavlov, who gave himself up to Norway last summer and obtained political asylum.

Wisconsin Republican Snubbed By GOP, Gets OK From Democrats

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) snubbed last week by Wisconsin's Young Republicans, has received the unanimous commendation of the Executive Board of the Young Democratic Clubs of Wisconsin.

A similar resolution was defeated by a voice vote at the state convention of the Young Republicans last Sunday.

Wiley has been in disfavor with many state Republicans because of his opposition to the Bricker amendment.

LANSING (AP) — Dr. Mark Nickerson, associate professor of pharmacology at the University of Michigan, today declined to tell the House Un-American activities subcommittee if he had ever been a Communist.

Dr. Nickerson invoked the Fifth Amendment when asked if he had been a member of the party when he was employed by Johns Hopkins University in 1943-44 on a secret project for the Federal Office of Scientific Research and Development. He also invoked the same amendment when asked if he had been president of the Book Shop amendment permitting witnesses of Baltimore in 1944.

Dr. Nickerson first invoked the First Amendment guaranteeing freedom of speech. Rep. Kit Clardy (R-Mich.), chairman, said that the committee would not accept this excuse and directed him to answer. Nickerson then invoked the "man of the year" He was a state vice president and national director of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Moves Launched To Ease Exchange Of Currencies

(By Congressional Quarterly)

WASHINGTON (AP) — Recent evidence suggests that major moves toward convertibility of world currencies may be in the making. Since the war, other nations have had to maintain strict currency controls to insure that their short supplies of dollars and gold would be used for first-priority purchases.

These controls have been barriers to trade with dollar countries. Holders of pounds, francs, marks, lira and yen might have money to spend in their own countries, but since they could not change it into dollars, they could not buy from the United States.

The limiting effects of inconvertibility have been far-reaching in the case of the pound sterling, which 14 nations use as their medium of international transactions. Some 40 per cent of the world's trade is conducted in pounds. If the pound sterling could once more become freely exchangeable for the currencies of all countries, a great liberation of trade would take place.

Steps Toward Convertibility?

The Randall Commission on foreign trade policy discussed the "dollar gap," and recommended "gradual but positive programs toward convertibility," suggesting greater use of the International Monetary Fund's $3.3 billion holdings of gold and convertible currencies, and standby credit arrangements with the U. S. Federal Reserve System. President Eisenhower's foreign trade message underlined his approval, and listed steps already taken.

Mr. Asserson's suit said the estate was managed too conservatively. She reportedly will fall heir to 14 million dollars of the estate on her grandmother's death.

Seldon B. Daume, president of the trust company, commented that his firm was proud of its record and had kept the estate at its $6 million dollar level.

Mrs. Asserson, married four times, said she has borrowed on some three million dollars of her expected inheritance. Her suit accused management of the estate of being so conservative that she had to accept rates as low as 30 cents on the dollar.

She lives in the Virgin Islands where she operates a botanical garden, an airport bar and a night-club.

Molotov agreed this morning that the nine-party Indochinese conference could go ahead without waiting for a solution of the procedural snag on inviting additional participants.

Vietnam Deputy Premier Pham Van Dong, right hand man of Communist leader Ho Chi Minh, had been understood to be ready to speak on the French proposal.

The U. S. delegation has taken the position that the French plan should be supported as a basis for negotiations, but that its judgment must be reserved on details until all other proposals are before the conference.

French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault spoke "exclusively in the name of the French government, not in the name of Viet Nam."

"We will make our own proposals in due course," he said.

The Eden-Molotov meeting lasted only 15 minutes.

Athletes from this area helped Northern Michigan College to a 75-59 victory over Soo Tech last week . . . Picking up points for the Wildcats were Axel Anderson and Jim Hirn of Escanaba, and George Tomasi and Vic Fochesat of Hermansville.

When the University of Minnesota defeated defending Big Ten co-champion Michigan Wolverines 3-2 late last week, Paul Giel received national attention with his four-hit pitching performance . . . But it was a former Marinette High School athlete who deserved the plaudits . . . John Wallfred, Gopher senior, blasted a tie-breaking homer in the ninth to knock Michigan out of the top spot in the Big Ten standings.

Marinette's Dick Pichette smashed two different field records in track meets last week . . . He rewrote the Walton Blesch field record with a shot put heave of 49 feet, 11 inches Wednesday afternoon . . . And Saturday in the triangular with Escanaba and Menominee he flipped the iron ball 51 feet, 10 1/4 inches for a new Lauerman field record . . . That mark is better than the Upper Peninsula record of 50 feet, 3 1/8 inches set by Robert Mitchell of Negaunee in 1946.

Lisle Blackbourn, the new Packer head coach, who spoke here at a joint meeting of the service clubs recently, feels that the pro rule allowing a ball carrier to get up and run even after being stopped or after hitting the ground will be changed . . . He said the gradual influx of college coaches and the increasing injuries to backs will hasten the change which was discussed at length at a recent NFL meeting in Philadelphia.

Spartans Deep Again; Wolverines Are Strong At Fullback Position

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three items of note came out of football practice games at Michigan State and Michigan Saturday.

Michigan State's Spartans are probably just as deep in football talent as they were last year when they went to the Rose Bowl.

Michigan's Wolverines are not as deep as they would like to be.

But the Wolverines apparently have some unexpected strength at fullback.

At East Lansing, the Spartan first team lost 12-7 to the second team. But the regulars were without the services of at least three of last year's stars, who are still in school.

At Ann Arbor, the Wolverines' first team cracked the second-second team's line for seven touchdowns, four of them scored by two young fullbacks.

Couldn't Use Pass

The Wolverines, playing in a cold rain and sleet storm, were deprived of effective use of the forward pass — their prime weapon last year.

Only one touchdown — a pass from Duncan McDonald to Ron Kramer of East Detroit — came by way of the air, and then Kramer had to run 50 yards after catching it.

Fred Baer, a veteran, and Dave Hill of Ypsilanti, hit for two touchdowns apiece operating from the fullback slot.

A surprising freshman from Bay City, John Greenwood, scored

O'Brien Will Shoot For Put Of 62 Feet

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Having shattered the supposedly impenetrable 60-foot mark in the shot put with a breath-taking heave of 60 feet 5 1/4 inches, Parry O'Brien heads for the Fresno Relays next Saturday "going for 62 feet."

Asked what the ultimate might be, the handsome Los Angeles giant said after twice officially breaking the 60-foot distance Saturday: "Eventually we'll be doing 65 feet."

Gromek, Hoeft, Garver Three Reasons For Tigers' Success

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers came home today on top of the American League. There were three good pitching reasons why they should stay there.

Foremost was a 34-year-old right-hander who knows when to beat down: Steve Gromek.

Secondly was a youngster who has apparently found himself: Billy Hoeft.

And last but not least was another right-hander who came to the Tigers in a semi-invalid status, but healed well: Ned Garver.

Tops In League

Gromek, who won the first game Sunday against Chicago 3-2 to earn the league lead for the Tigers, is the top pitcher in the circuit with five victories and no losses.

He gave only nine hits in 11 innings and only one base on balls. Gromek has given only four base on balls in 47 innings this season.

Hoeft celebrates his 22nd birthday a week from today. Last year with the Tigers he won a disappointing nine games against 14 losses.

Lost First Start

He got little or no practice during spring training. He lost his first game of the year.

Snead Suffers Playoff Defeat In Greenbrier

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—Sam Snead's own words after he beat Ben Hogan in a playoff for the recent Masters title that "the sun doesn't always shine on the same dog's tail twice" fitted perfectly his own loss to Herman Scharlau of Boca Raton, Fla., Sunday in a playoff for the Greenbrier Open.

Snead lost to Scharlau on the third hole in a sudden death play-off. Up until Snead missed one of his frequent short putts it appeared that the playoff would provide him his fourth straight triumph on the course at which he is the pro.

He had come up from six strokes off the pace in the last round of the 72-hole tournament to the Scharlau and Jackie Burke Jr., of Klamath Lake, N.Y., at the end of 72 holes. They all had 274, six strokes under par.

Daugherty, surveying the results, said, "The team was hitting hard. We've got the makings of a good outfit this fall."

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson, the wonder boy of the 1952 Olympic boxing team, may be heading into deep water if he gets past Jesse Turner tonight at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway.

Patterson, the clever ex-champ with the talented left hand, is being talked up as Patterson's next opponent with a tentative June 7 date. Pal Joey is head and shoulders above the type of boys Patterson has been knocking over in 12 pro starts.

Turner, actually a middleweight, lost a decision to Eduardo Lause, the Argentine, in a scrap a few weeks ago. He weighed 159 that night. Patterson weighed 167 when he outpointed Alvin Williams April 19.

With the Patterson-Turner match, the Parkway ends its television contract with DuMont, switching to ABC next Monday with an Orlando Zulueta-Terry Bassett match.

Barber's .280 score was worth $3,500 and gave him runner-up honors. Bo Wining, Oklahoma City, and Jimmy Clark of Laguna Beach, Calif., collected $2,400 each for their third and fourth place finish at 281.

Yankees Solve Slants Of Athletics' Trice

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Until the New York Yankees unloaded on Bob Trice Sunday, the young Negro righthander with the Philadelphia A's had bewitched American League hitters for a perfect 4-0 record.

After watching Trice throw the normal reaction on enemy benches is "Give me a bat, I can hit this guy." He looks so easy with his half speed pitches, his sliders and his curves.

Ask Trice what he throws and he gives you a solemn-faced "I don't know."

"People think I'm trying to be a wise guy rookie when I tell them that," he said. "But I'm not. People say I throw a slider. Maybe I do, I don't know. I hold it the same way as every other pitch."

It just seems to do something different. A screwball? What's that?"

If Trice really doesn't know what he is throwing, he has plenty of company. From the stands it looks like he has nothing, despite his 4-1 record in the majors.

First time he pitched against the Yankees they couldn't wait to grab a bat. But at the end of a chill April afternoon they had been shut out 1-0.

Trice walked only 84 in 229 innings at Ottawa, but wildness hurt him Sunday. He walked two before Gil McDougald doubled and Andre Carey hit a three-run homer in the second inning. He walked Joe Collins before Yogi Berra and Enos Slaughter hit back-to-back homers to knock him out in the third and the A's eventually lost 7-1.

Georges Carpenter of France was the first boxer ever to win all the championships of his country, from bantamweight to heavyweight.

Rivals Beginning To Take Tigers Seriously

By JOE REICHLER

AP Sports Writer

Rival American League clubs

are beginning to take the amazing

Detroit Tigers seriously.

Last Sunday, after the Tigers had blanked the Yanks at Yankee

Stadium, New York Manager

Casey Stengel called them the most improved club in the league.

Yesterday, after the Tigers had whipped the Chicago White Sox

3-2 in the first game of a doubleheader and held them to a 10-inning 0-0 standoff in the second game, White Sox Manager Paul

Richards voiced Stengel's sentiments.

5-1 Road Trip

Today, the Tigers are in first place with 11 victories against only five defeats, a half game in front of Chicago, a full game ahead of Cleveland and two ahead of the defending champion Yankees. They return home with a brilliant 5-1 record for their first road tour.

Sunday's victory was Detroit's eighth in nine road decisions. Last year at this time the Tigers had dropped all seven road games.

In other American League games, Baltimore defeated Cleveland 2-1 in 10 innings, and the Yankees whopped and tied Philadelphia in a double-header. Three home runs gave the Yanks a 7-4

opening-game triumph and rookie

Bill Skowron's run-scoring single in the eighth gave them a 1-1 tie in the second game, halted after nine innings on account of darkness. Rain washed out a scheduled double-header between Washington and the Red Sox in Boston.

Dodgers In Front

Brooklyn opened up half-game lead in the National League, nipping the Philadelphia Phils 2-1

while the second-place Cincinnati

Redlegs split a double-header with

St. Louis. The Redlegs came back to win the second game 6-5 after the Cardinals had captured the opener 10-7. The New York Giants walloped Pittsburgh 5-1 and the

Chicago Cubs edged out Milwaukee

5-3.

It took Detroit 11 innings to defeat the White Sox in the opener.

The winning run crossed the plate when Case Michaels committed a throwing error with two out and the bases loaded in the 11th. Gromek went all the way, giving up nine hits and walking one for his fifth victory without a defeat.

Virgil Trucks, who relieved starter

Sandy Consuegra in the 10th, was charged with the defeat. Southpaws Billy Hoeft of Detroit and Billy Pierce of Chicago hooked up in the scoreless second-game duel.

Pierce fanned 12 to Hoeft's eight.

The Indians missed an opportunity to pass Chicago for the runner-up spot when Turley held the run to four hits. Gil Coan's single scored Neil Berry with the run that hung the tough defeat upon

Art Houtteman.

Erskine Beats Roberts

Carl Erskine outpitched Robin

Roberts as the Dodgers swept the three-game series from Philadelphia. Erskine permitted five hits but was in constant hot water with nine bases on balls. Five double plays helped him immeasurably.

Home runs by Hank Sauer and

Ralph Kiner of Chicago helped

Bob Rush defeat Warren Spahn

and the Braves.

Ted Kluszewski hammered three home runs and drove in eight runs for the Redlegs. His last homer, the second of the nightcap and ninth of the season, proved the difference in the 6-5 Redleg victory. Stan Musial batted in four runs with his 10th homer and two singles to lead the Cards to their first-game victory. Vic Raschi picked up his third triumph with out a defeat in the first game although he needed help from Al

Brazile in the ninth. Musial collected two more hits in the nightcap to take over the league batting lead with .382.

Pet Dog Picks Master In Court

BIRMINGHAM (AP)—A black and white terrier whose heart knew the way home helped Judge Ralph Parker decide who owned the friendly dog Friday.

With two families claiming him, the dog climbed upon the lap of Colin Hardeman, 11, and gave him a slurpy, cold-nosed kiss while Colin was testifying in the witness chair.

Judge Parker ruled that the dog was Sport, a pet of Colin, and not Tippy, a dog that belonged to Harvey Baker, 15.

It took a two-hour hearing to decide a dispute between the Hardeman and Baker families over whether the dog was Sport or Tippy. Both pets looked alike and disappeared about the same time. Then Sport—or Tippy—came into the Baker yard and was claimed as Harvey's missing pet.

The dog showed equal affection for both families at the trial until he kissed Colin in the witness chair. Then Judge Parker ruled:

"A dog never forgets its original owners."

Bitterly disappointed Harvey Baker was promised another puppy when Tippy's mother has her next litter.

Law Enforcement Made Honorable And Hoover Is Proud Of Achievement

By DON WHITEHEAD
Copyright 1954

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON (AP)—J. Edgar Hoover's greatest pride on this his 30th anniversary as FBI director, is this:

"I'm proudest of the fact that we've made law enforcement an honorable profession. In all my career that achievement has made me happiest."

By observing civil rights, by eliminating the third degree and the evil practices that once existed, we have achieved a standing in the country of which I'm proud. And it's largely due to the character of our personnel."

Hoover said he is hopeful the FBI will be divorced for all time from partisan politics and that his own successor will come from FBI ranks.

Up From Ranks

Looking back over the stormy years of FBI development, Hoover said in one of his rare interviews:

"I'm heartily in favor of promoting from within the bureau."

"When I took over the directorship in 1924, FBI agents held their jobs because of political ties. They were political appointees, and the only requirement was 'Do you have the endorsement of your committee man?'"

"I stopped that. All my assistants and associates have come through the ranks. My feeling is that my successor, when the time comes, should be designated from the ranks. Not on any basis of seniority, but on ability . . ."

"We have developed some fine executives within the FBI. You can't buy the kind of energy and devotion they've given to the bureau."

No One-Man Show

The general impression has grown through the years that the FBI is a one-man show, largely because the name J. Edgar Hoover has become linked inextricably with the name FBI. Hoover does have the final decisions, but in the background is a 10-man brain trust through which Hoover works in directing his fight against espionage, crime, and subversion.

Each morning at 10:30 Hoover's 10 top aides gather in what is known as "the executive conference." Associate Director Clyde Tolson is chairman in the absence of Hoover. With him are Assistants to the Director L. V. Boardman and Louis B. Nichols, and the assistant directors and division chiefs.

One member of the conference said: "There are no holds barred in our meetings. We thrash out policies and procedures within the framework of our responsibility. Each decision is arrived at by a vote. If there is a split vote—we must give the arguments on both sides to the director for his final decision."

First Years Hardest

The director wants the best opinions even if they run counter to his own. He wants recommendations too on a course of action. Once a decision is made, then we close ranks and carry out the job."

Hoover recalled the first months of his career with the FBI. "There were some marvelous fights inside the bureau," he said. "Some of the old-timers complained we were getting 'Boy Scouts' to do the work that could be entrusted only to the two-gum men."

Those first years were ones of reorganization, building up a corps of agents trained in law and accounting, and establishing uniform rules of conduct and procedure.

Then came the gangster era—the wild rampage of gang rule, gang murders, kidnaping, bank robberies and reigns of terror by underworld mobs working with crooked politicians, crooked courts, crooked police officers.

The kidnaping of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr., stirred the nation. And then "Pretty Boy" Floyd, Vern Miller and Adam Richetti slaughtered four police officers in trying to free a pal, Frank Nash, from their custody. This was the bloody "Kansas City Massacre" of June 17, 1933. Ironically, the hoodlums killed Nash too in the wild shooting.

Teeth Put In Laws

In the breakdown of local law enforcement, enraged citizens demanded action from the federal government. Congress in 1934 passed a series of crime bills which almost overnight changed the FBI from an unarmed force with no authority into a crime-fighting organization.

FBI men were authorized to carry arms and make arrests. It became a federal crime to kill a government agent. Laws were passed giving the FBI authority to go into action against kidnapers, extortionists, bank robbers, racketeers and criminals fleeing across state lines to avoid prosecution.

Hoover built up a giant master file of fingerprints, established a national crime laboratory for scientific analysis of crime clues. He started the National Police Academy, where police from all over the nation came to study FBI crime detection methods and the scientific means of gathering evidence. The facilities of the FBI were opened to all local law enforcement agencies.

By 1939, he reported that not a single organized crime gang was operating.

College Nurse Will Check On Sick Leave Of MSC Employees

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Michigan State College employees had better be groaning loudly when they take sick leave from now on.

The college has agreed to hire a visiting nurse to check up on them.

Here's why: Last year college employees took off 65,000 days of sick leave that cost $100,000, the college says.

Observed Dr. John A. Hannah, MSC's president: "They take sick leave when they want to go to a ball game or hoe the garden. There'll be some sudden recoveries now."
